When you have a hard question about Islam, take a look at this comprehensive commentary written by scholars from the 13th century. Kitab al-Tafsir is one of the well-known and highly appreciated books for explanation of Quranic verses. It was compiled by Ibn Kathir who collected all explanations from four schools of jurisprudence. In addition to that, he also referred to sayings from Ali ibn Abi Talib and collections from Seerah - Life story of Prophet Muhammad. He wrote this book around the year 1373 in Damascus during his stay there as a judge. Some of the highlight points of this book includes: This collection is a mixture of narratives, ahadith and Quranic interpretation from companions of Muhammad which is arranged chronologically.

The book is available for free download from <http://al-islamforall.blogspot.com/2012/09/complete-tafseer-ibn-kathir.html> as a PDF file as well as online reading. All of the information in this article is correct as it is translated from the original Arabic book.
